In the matter of

Verizon Telephone Companies' Petition for Forbearance From the Current Pricing Rules for the Unbundled Network Element Platform

WC Docket No. 03-157

ORDER

Adopted: September 23, 2004

Released: September 23, 2004

By the Chief, Pricing Policy Division:

1. On July 1, 2003, the Verizon Telephone Companies (Verizon) filed a Petition for Expedited Forbearance asking the Commission to forbear from: (1) the rules allowing competitive local exchange carriers (LECs) that lease the unbundled network element (UNE) Platform to collect per-minute switching access charges from interexchange carriers; and (2) applying the Total Element Long Run Incremental Cost (TELRIC) pricing methodology to the UNE-Platform, and to apply the resale pricing standard instead.¹ On September 17, 2004, Verizon filed a request to withdraw its petition in light of events occurring since the petition was filed.² Specifically, Verizon's request to withdraw points to the Commission's rulemaking to establish alternative unbundling rules and the Commission's rulemaking regarding the TELRIC pricing methodology.³ In this Order, we grant Verizon's request to withdraw and dismiss its petition without prejudice.

2. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to the authority delegated under sections 0.91 and 0.291 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91 and 0.291, that Verizon's request to withdraw the above-captioned petition for forbearance IS GRANTED.
